Trail Highlights: View the designated Wild and Scenic Little Missouri River through the Winding Stairs area. This area is known for its unique geological formations and outstanding water features.

The most popular segment of the trail is from the Winding Stairs area to Shady Lake. Many hikers use a 4-mile section connecting the Little Missouri Trail to the Athens-Big Fork Trail.

This trail consists of a 19.4 mile-loop with a 3.3-mile section. Part of the route travels along Forest Roads 38 and 106. The remainder of the route travels an old road that is no longer open to motor vehicle traffic.

Surrounding Areas:

- Albert Pike Recreation Area, a well developed camping area, offers swimming, camping, and fishing opportunities.
- Little Missouri Falls, a forested picnic area, offers fishing and a trail to a waterfall overlook.
- For more hiking experiences in the area try the Little Missouri or the Athens-Big Fork Trail.
